EMPLOYEE CODE OF CONDUCT

Effective Date

January 1, 2026

1. Professional Conduct

Employees are expected to communicate respectfully and act professionally with colleagues, customers, and vendors.

2. Confidential Information

Employees must protect confidential company, customer, and employee information and must not disclose it without authorization.

3. Conflicts of Interest

Employees must disclose actual or potential conflicts of interest to HR or their manager.

4. Acceptable Use

Company systems and devices must be used responsibly and in accordance with security requirements.

5. Reporting Concerns

Suspected misconduct or policy violations should be reported through HR or the approved reporting channel.